- Items for door prizes are appreciated and can be turned in when you arrive for the meeting.
- If you wish, you may bring a dessert to share. A table will be set up at the end of the food line.
- Please arrive early enough to purchase your tickets so that we can begin eating at noon.

Agenda items:

Director positions are open for election. Nominations will be accepted during the meeting with voting to follow, so start thinking about who you would like to nominate or if you would like to be nominated. If you are interested in a Director position (All persons over the age of 18 years who own draft horses and mules and who subscribe to the purposes of the Corporation and have paid their dues for the present fiscal year), please call one of our current directors or have someone nominate you.

Queen-If you would like to be our 2016-2017 Draft Horse Queen or know of someone who would like to be, please be at the Annual Meeting. Your parents or you must be active members of the club and own draft horses or mules to be eligible. Any age may be queen. You are also required to be present at our 2016 Field Day, Picnic and 2017 Annual Meeting.

A reminder on the voting rules as it is stated in the By-laws – There is one vote per membership. A family membership is considered one vote. When you arrive and pay for your meal ticket, you will receive a ballot to vote for Directors and a Queen. Please save these until needed in the meeting.

NMDHA SCHOLARSHIP: If you are interested in the $500 scholarship the club is giving away, contact Barb Scholoemer for the info and application or go online for a form. Barb's email (campuspark@hotmail.com)
